ENDING HOMELESSNESS... ONE FAMILY AT A TIME

Our parents are busy bees! So it is great for parents to have snacks available for their kids.

During the day, our moms and dads are out searching for housing, going to appointments, and getting things done! Kids that are not in school yet are part of this daily journey, so it is great for moms to have snacks available for their kids when they are out and about for the day! For kids who are in school, we can hand these off to parents to give their kiddos an after school snack!
